* Okay, don't really call 1-800-SciDude. It's not a real number

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING

This page is an example of what an advertisement could look like. When writing ads, students are not restricted as to type font styles or sizes. Remember that all ads must relate to what we are now, or have recently covered in class. They can be made-up or real objects. Have fun, and remember to turn an ad in each week.
